If you are a member of another Church, or for any other reason do not wish to come, please accept our greetings and the assurance of our friendship.

TIME TO LIVE

"I came that they might have Life, and have it more abundantly."

John 10.10

Yes, each of us has just one Life to Live. Whether we like it or not, we are ourselves, living where we are, working where we do, now.

I suppose each of us has a dream of what would be ideal. Most people I know, including myself, feel that things fall far short of ideal, for we each have our particular problems, weaknesses, hurts and sorrows. "If only things were different" — but they are not!

It is to people like us, real people, that God says "I love you, I know your problems, and I know your faults. I will never cease loving you. For I want to love you into being the sort of person I made you to be."

This Christian faith of ours is so simple that a child can understand it. Yet for many of us, there are questions to be asked, too.

You will see what we plan for this Lent and Easter. You will be most welcome to join us in any of these activities, and above all, in taking your part in living as a Christian in this place.

JOHN STANTON,
Rector
